SWING COAT

WITH DARYL LANCASTER

FEBRUARY 8 THROUGH FEBRUARY 12, 2019

ABOUT Daryl Lancaster: Daryl received her BA cum laude degree in Fine Arts in 1977 from Montclair State College Montclair, New Jersey and has been actively working since then as a weaver/fiber artist. Comfortable with the sewing machine for more than fifty years, she spent 10 years as a production craftswoman, selling her handwoven clothing in craft markets and galleries throughout the United States. She teaches garment construction and related topics to weavers and other fiber enthusiasts across North America.

MORNING PROGRAM: Saturday, February 9 Thou Shalt Wash Thy Fabric When It Comes Off the Loom -Think of the washing machine and dryer as a critical part of the design "team". Learn how to sample handwoven yardage. Explore possibilities of fiber, texture, sett and how much to weave. Lots of 'before' and 'after' samples to explore.

4-1/2-DAY WORKSHOP: Friday, February 8, 9:00-4:00; Saturday February 9, 1:00-4:00; Sunday February 10 through Tuesday February 12, 9:00-4:00 each day: Swing Coat This workshop is for advanced beginning and above sewists. You will use your handwoven fabric or you can use appropriate commercial fabric. This longer swing coat with collar and bound buttonholes will be custom fit so it will look great, feel good and compliment your figure. You will learn many inspiring techniques to make custom garments from your handwoven fabrics. This class is designed to teach creativity as well as technique.
