Southern California Handweavers' Guild

The Southern California Handweavers' Guild has been supporting the weaving community since 1946. Our 100+ members include a wide variety of individuals from hobbyists to professional artists and teachers. Some of the things we provide are:

Monthly Meetings: Our meetings give members the opportunity to interact with fellow weavers, listen to lectures, and share weaving tips.

Learning: We organize workshops, and study groups to expand our knowledge and enhance creativity.

The Tie-Up: Our monthly newsletter contains Guild news and upcoming events.

SCHGweavers Yahoo!Group: We maintain a member-only Yahoo!Group to provide information on events, weaving items for sale, and a place for weaving discussions.

Community Involvement: Every year we host a large weaving and fiber festival which includes: exhibits, demonstrations, classes, and a large vendor hall. We also provide weaving demonstrations in the community to introduce and encourage the art of weaving.

Equipment Rental and Library: We have an assortment of looms available and an extensive collection of books, magazines, and CDs.

We Welcome Your Membership

Programs

We strive to bring information to our members on Weaving Techniques, Creativity in Weaving, and General Skills. SCHG hosts regionally and nationally known weavers to present to our Guild. Some of our past programs and workshops have included: Basketry, Tapestry, Color Theory for Weaving, Finishing Techniques, and Garment Construction.

SCHG programs and workshops are typically held on the second Saturday of each month, September through June, at the San Fernando Valley Arts & Cultural Center, 18312 Oxnard Street, Tarzana. Meetings begin at 9 a.m.

More information about our upcoming and past programs can be found on our website at: <http://www.schg.org>.
